

JoAnn Kirven

July 28, 1928 - April 13, 2020

Harlem, GA – JoAnn Bennett Kirven, 91, wife of the late Julian L. Kirven, Jr., went home to be with the Lord on Monday, April 13, 2020.

Due to the COVID-19 concerns, the family will postpone memorial services until a later date. An announcement will be made by Starling Funeral Home once the service has been scheduled. On behalf of the family, and during these unprecedented times, continue to support the family through their loss by sending cards, making phone calls, or placing your on-line condolences at www.starlingfunrealhome.com until formal services are held.

Mrs. Kirven enjoyed carving and was always helping others. Through the years, she was a devoted caregiver to her husband and grandparents before they passed away. Mrs. Kirven was just a very special mother and friend.

Survivors include her two sons, John Kirven (Sandy) and David Kirven (Janet Casteel); Grandchildren, Sanna Cowie (Chris), Jack B. Kirven and John C. Kirven; Great-grandchildren, Harrison Norman, Emmett Cowie, Bridgett Shealy and Aurclia Cowie. She was preceded in death by her husband and a sister, Jean Verseput.

“ John and Family,
So sorry for your loss. Your mom was a sweet person. I lost my Mom recently and I know how painful it can be. You and your family will be in my prayers

Sincerely,

Judy Long Curtis

“ Joanna and I worked together in the OR at VA hospital for a number of years. She taught me everything about eye surgery and she was STRICT!!! She would drive me CRAZY!!! Joanna was one of the best teachers I have ever known. I respected her for her skills, her knowledge, and her compassion and commitment to perfection. I loved her and will miss her. God bless her family in this sad time.

“ David & John, I worked with your Mom in the OR at the VA. She was a hard-working, meticulous lady who taught me much. I will miss her. My prayers are with the family. I was blessed to call her “friend.” May God bring you comfort.

“ Family:

I just learned of Mrs. Joann's passing this morning. I came to know her through our business, James I. Alfriend Consulting Foresters. I had grown to love her like a friend and she and I would always give each other a big hug when she came by our office. I will miss my friend and am sad that I didn't have a chance for one last conversation with her. It has been several months since she came by the office, and I often thought of her and remiss in not calling to check on her.

Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers and I am going to miss my friend.

Sincerely,
Lisa McCorkle
