“ Mrs. Burroughs was one of the kindest and sweetest soul I've ever met. She loved her family with everything she had. Her memories were etched in her heart forever. My heart is broken, however, I know Jesus was her Savior and she will now live an eternal life of the joy she so deserved. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ My deepest sympathies are with Bobby (Papaw) and Keith. I will certainly miss Mary Lois aka GyGy as her grandchildren called her. Her genuine sweetness and concern for everyone made her very special - She loved everyone, and those who knew her loved her too - I know I did. She always had a smile, and a warm hello, and loving goodbye when we visited, even in her last days she had a smile. Heaven gained a beautiful soul.
