“ Mike worked for me at General Dynamics in the Non-Resident Training Group, based out of Fort Gordon, GA. A Marine, he initially worked on our (first) Marine Corps training program, but his experience in tactical networks and his superior skills, intelligence and tireless energy made him a vital team member of many programs that we did -- and according to the Government representatives who reviewed our work -- and excelled in. I retired from GD in Mar 2011, so over time I lost contact with many of the over 100 employees who worked for me, but I would get "progress reports" from time to time, and Mike's name was always associated with diligence, prodigious effort and a "take no prisoners" adherence to accuracy and the highest quality.

Mike will be sorely missed. I have no pictures or videos nor do any anecdotes come easily to my mind. But to his relatives, I say "your son/brother was a blessing to us during the time he was with us" and to his brothers in service and co-workers, I say (even though I am not a Marine, but hired a dozen or more), Sempre Fi!

“ I remember when I first met Mike. He was building a kayak in the garage of his parents' house. I was so impressed with the craftsmanship. It was truly a work of art. In fact, Mike never seemed to shy away from hard work. I loved his dry sense of humor and his beautiful braid.

“ I'm not sure if you will get this but he has a whole other family (friends that are family) that he pulled away from during his time with his father. They had reached out multiple times and never got a response but continued to. Please if you can at least let us know where he was buried or any information you may have. Thank you.

“ Hi there. I'm hoping you can confirm (or hopefully refute) the rumor that this is the Mike Schleusner that was in the Marines with me. We were very close until he got out around 2002 as a Gunnery Sergeant. 6'3", about 190-200 lbs, brown hair, glasses. Very into hunting and fishing, and motorcycles. His dad was a retired Marine and they lived in Port Angeles. If you could send me a text, I'd really appreciate it. His other Marine brothers would appreciate it as well. 858-88zero-five78two.

“ Michael....You were a kind and gentle soul. I enjoyed having you as my neighbor. Ed Zoble
