Papa:

I can't believe your gone but I take comfort knowing you are with our heaving father. We will miss you greatly more than you could know. You touched our lives deeply, you were there when we needed advice, a helping hand and more. You are a great man who left us with great memories of you. We love you so very much and are proud to say we were blessed to know you. There is so much I want to say but am at a loss for words as my heart cries for a great loss. I will post more later as it is hard to think while mourning our loss. We will meet you again and what a glorious day that will be.

Love to the family and be in peace papa we love & miss you.
